

Name _____ Date _____

UNIT 2 – THE PARROT

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

2A Introduction

This is the story of a parrot who lived in the jungle. She lived a simple life, flying around, going wherever she wanted. But what would happen if a mean guy decided he wanted to trap her one day? Would it be the end of her freedom?

2B Song Lyrics

Listen, listen:

I'm not embarrassed; this is the story of a parrot,
Who was red and green, the prettiest thing you've ever seen.
She didn't have a name; no wild animal does,
She's in the jungle; see the trees, she's flying above.
Yeah, her life is carefree, not a worry at all,
'Cause no animals hunt parrots; the birdie was tall.
She would fly to Iguazu by the waterfalls,
Listen to the humans; yeah, she liked how they talked.
Sitting in her tree, she'd repeat what she heard,
Until one day, this evil trapper named Bert heard her words.
He's thinking, "I'm going to trap this bird,
This beautiful, charming, attractive bird."
He tried to coax the bird: "Hey, birdie, come here,"
He tried to make the bird do what he wanted, you hear?
Bert was the vilest liar, pulled out a piece of papaya,
The parrot wanted the fruit; it was what she desired.
She didn't see the net until it was too late!
Bert said, "I'm going to take you to the United States,
I'm going to sell you to a lawyer named Mitch.
Little parrot, ha ha, you're going to make me rich!"

*We're going to make it, if we all just try,
We're going to make it; baby, we can fly.*
(x2)

Name _____ Date _____

Bert had the parrot in a cage on a boat on the river,
He whistled a tune while he cooked his dinner.
The parrot, she wasn't feeling too great,
Held in captivity; no, she couldn't escape.
She tried to talk to Bert with the words she learned,
She said, "Let me out," but Bert's back was turned.
And even if he heard, I mean the dude was mean.
Now she begged and pleaded to be free,
"Waak, please release me!" But Bert wouldn't set her free,
She was shaking, thinking, "This is trouble for me."
Now she was getting frantic, desperate, upset, going to throw a tantrum any moment,
Trapped in a cage on a boat that's floating, needed someone just to hug or hold hands,
Hold beaks, hold feet, feel the breeze as she flies away.
She was more sad than Little Bo Peep, okay? (Sad than Little Bo Peep, okay?)
But wait! This story's not tragic; the ending's not sad,
Because the parrot started chewing on the lock, man.
And her beak was so strong just from cracking some nuts,
And the lock was kind of old; it had started to rust.
Just when she was almost done hoping,
She cracked open the lock, and pushed the door open.
Bert turned around, saw what was going down,
He grabbed his net, "Hey, birdie, I'm going to get you now!"
But the parrot took off, and she squawked, "Bye, bye!"
She was free now in the big, vast blue sky.

*We're going to make it, if we all just try,
We're going to make it; baby, we can fly.
(x2)*

*We're going to fly, man!
We're going to fly, man!*

Name _____ Date _____

2C Words Defined

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

attractive

(adj) Pleasing to the eye, mind, or senses; having the power to draw attention. Kyle's dad painted the tree house in an attractive blue.

captivity

(noun) The state of being held or imprisoned against one's wishes. Sitting in jail, the prisoner had lots of time to think about her captivity.

carefree

(adj) Without troubles or worries. I used to think a butterfly's life was carefree until I realized that butterflies have to worry about finding food like any other animal.

coax

(verb) To get someone to do something in a gentle way; to persuade. Leroy just couldn't coax his brother Petey to come outside in the snow

desire

(verb) To wish for; to want very much. *As soon as I saw the guitar in the window I desired

(noun) Something that you want very much; a longing. John has a strong desire to be a doctor someday

frantic

(adj) Very excited or upset; marked by fast, wild, or nervous actions. As soon as we leave the house, our dog Marbles gets frantic.

plead

(verb) To ask for something that is felt to be very important; to beg. The robot pleaded for me to build him a robot-friend.

release

(verb) To let go; to free. Kicking the wall is not a good way to release your energy.

(noun) A freeing or letting go. After his release from prison, Jerry opened a taco stand.

Name _____ Date _____

tragic

Causing great sadness. I just got to the tragic ending of the play and found out both Romeo and Juliet end up dead.

vast

Very big in area or size. The ocean is so vast that you could swim around it your whole life and never be in the same place twice.

Name _____ Date _____

2D Synonyms

Circle the word on the right that matches the meaning of the word or phrase on the left.

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

- | | | | |
|------------------------|------------|---------|----------|
| 1. to let go | desire | release | coax |
| 2. in a cage or prison | captivity | desire | release |
| 3. overexcited | attractive | frantic | vast |
| 4. to want very much | coax | plead | desire |
| 5. beautiful | attractive | tragic | carefree |

Name _____ Date _____

2E Fill in the Blank

Write the word in the blank so that the sentence makes sense.

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

1. I had to _____ with my parents for months before they agreed to take us to Disney World.

plead release desire

2. My grandpa keeps a _____ amount of bottled water in his house. He says he wants to be ready when aliens land and steal all our water.

tragic vast carefree

3. Jacquelyn was _____ when she couldn't find the science project she'd been working on for months.

carefree attractive frantic

4. There was a _____ moment in the movie when the dog died, but it had a happy ending.

vast desired tragic

5. My only _____ is that I make the basketball team.

release desire captivity

Name _____ Date _____

2F Connections

Each sentence has a strong connection with one of the words from the unit. Write the correct word on the line below.

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

1. I had to open a can of tuna fish to get my cat to come out from under the bed.

2. I've never seen Margaret worried about anything. She doesn't seem to have any problems

3. After five long years, the prisoner was finally a free man.

4. There is such a huge amount of information online; it is hard to find what you need.

5. I played the PS3 at Hannah's house this weekend, and now all I can think about is how I'm going to get one.

Name _____ Date _____

2G Applying Meanings

Circle the letter that makes sense or answers the question.

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

1. Which is a tragic event?
(A) a birthday party
(B) a plane crash
(C) a wedding
(D) breakfast

2. What kind of person gets paid for being attractive?
(A) a boxer
(B) a writer
(C) a nurse
(D) a model

3. If you caught a fish and released it, that means you
(A) ate it for dinner
(B) took a picture of it
(C) let it go
(D) had it stuffed

4. What is a carefree thing to do?
(A) laugh
(B) forget your homework
(C) cry
(D) take a test

5. Who would desire food the most?
(A) a chef
(B) someone who was starving
(C) a farmer
(D) someone who had eaten too much

Name _____ Date _____

2H Reading

Read the passage below and then answer the questions that follow

The Life of a Dog

It's no fun being a dog sometimes. If you're a human, this is probably surprising to hear. Humans think our lives are carefree. What do dogs have to worry about? they think. We don't have to buy our own food. We don't have to go to school. Humans think all we do is lie around all day and get petted all night. It sounds pretty nice, doesn't it?

Well, I'm here to tell you that it just isn't that easy. First of all, I live in captivity. Sure, I'm free to wander all over the house, but I can't go outside when I want to. I've tried, but my paws can't work the doorknob! When my owners walk in the door at night, I'm usually frantic. It's not because I'm so happy to see them; it's because I'm so darn bored!

For another thing, it can be pretty lonely. Just the other day, my owner took me for a walk. We passed the most attractive girl dog I have ever seen. I would have loved to stop and talk to her. I might have even asked her out on a date. We could have gone to the dog park together. But no, my owner had something else to do. And what was it? What was so vastly important that I could not spend time with the love of my life? My owner had to check his email—for the fifth time that day!

But I know how to handle my owners. I have them well trained. I can almost always coax a doggie snack out of them just by doing a trick, like shaking hands or rolling over. And if that doesn't work, I can always plead with them. When they eat chicken, they always give the bones to me. They must really like me to give me their delicious bones!

Most of the time, it's not that bad. I have a nice, big pillow to sleep on. My owners treat me well. And I finally figured out how to beat the boredom during the day: My paws don't work so well for opening doors, but they're just the right size for using the remote control!

Name _____ Date _____

1. According to the narrator, why do humans think dogs have carefree lives

2. Why can't the narrator open the door at his house?

3. Where would the narrator have taken the girl dog on their date?

4. What are some tricks the narrator knows?

5. Where does the narrator sleep?

Name _____ Date _____

Bonus: Crossword Puzzle

Solve this crossword puzzle. Note: Some answers may be different forms of the vocab words from this unit.

attractive / captivity / carefree / coax / desire / frantic / plead / release / tragic / vast

ACROSS

- 1 In a court, the judge will ask if you _____ guilty or innocent.
- 3 When my little sister gets _____, I am usually the one who calms her down.
- 6 To let go.
- 7 A _____ number of people live in China.
- 8 To get someone to do something.
- 9 Zoo animals live in _____.
- 10 Without any worries.

DOWN

- 2 If you _____ anything while you're staying at our hotel, please let us know and we will get it for you.
- 4 What an _____ outfit! It makes you look so good!
- 5 Everyone died at the end of the _____ story.